

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Midway Christian Sunday School has 157 pupils, says the Clipper.

—Elder Gowen, of Lancaster, began a meeting at the Hustonville Christian church, Sunday.

—The Providence church has fired Prof. J. B. Jones from its pastorate for the part he took in the Breckinridge canvass. Good.

—Sam Jones has become one of the editors of "The Tennessee Methodist," heretofore edited by Rev. B. F. Payne, at Nashville.

—Rev. J. W. Tyler, of Georgetown, preached at the Presbyterian church here Sunday. The pastor, Rev. S. M. Logan, is holding a meeting for him.

—Frankfort is experiencing that moral apathy that usually follows a religious wave. The meat shops, cigar, drug and confectionery stores are to shut up Sundays hereafter.

—Missouri Presbyterians have adopted resolutions condemning any political party that stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record against the saloon.

—Eld. W. E. Crabtree, of Lexington, arrived yesterday and last night began a meeting at the Christian church. The hours at which services will be held are 10 A. M. and 7 P. M.

—Bro. J. G. Livingston closed his meetings at the Academy last night. There had been five additions. The house had been crowded nearly every night and some grand sermons were delivered, and much and lasting good has been done. —Corbin Enterprise.

—The most interesting revival held at LaGrange for several years is in progress at the Baptist church, conducted by the Rev. J. W. Porter, of Galloway, Tenn. Fifty additions have been made to the church, comprising some of the most prominent men of the town.

—Rev. Sam Bettis, cowboy evangelist, thus sums up the results of his recent revival at Bay City Mich.: "I had over 3,000 conversions, 1,250 old tapers signed the pledge, $862 was raised for expenses, $500 clear for Sam, and 6,000 people were fed free meals." He is satisfied.

—The meeting at the Baptist church has been a success from the beginning. About fifteen additions up to the present and probably will continue all week, though Rev. Borum will leave Thursday night, but not without the praise of the good people of Somerset. —Reporter.

—We were prevented from accepting a cordial invitation to the county meeting at Rosh Branch Saturday, but we learn that the large crowd that gathered were not only regaled with a feast of reason, but with a dinner, which seemed to fill the whole country round about, and which was dispensed with a hospitality such as the good people are noted for.

—According to the census statistics of 1890, as given in a bulletin just issued, 95 per cent. of the farms in Kentucky are owned by the persons who cultivate them, and of these 95 per cent. are free of incumbrance. The debt on farms is $5,336,554, or 40 per cent. of their value, with interest at 6.68 per cent. Of the homes, 32 per cent. are owned and of these 93 per cent. are free of incumbrance. The debt on homes is $3,034,684 with interest at 6.74 per cent.

—The report that the Emperor of China had manifested his displeasure with Viceroy Li Hung Chang by stripping him of his three-eyed peacock feather and his yellow riding jacket has been confirmed by the publication of the Imperial decree pronouncing doom upon the hapless High Commissioner.

—John Logan, of Xenia, O., who has just died, had a peculiar peculiarity. He would allow no living thing on his place but himself and went so far as to poison the birds that came to his trees.

—John Evans, of Leipsic, O., only 14 years old, has stolen in his short life a round dozen horses. He is now serving a short sentence on a Reform Farm near the scene of his last theft.

—In West Virginia 2,000 oil wells are in operation, and it has been estimated that the output for the present year will be fully 10,000,000 barrels, worth $8,000,000.

—The Colorado Woman's democratic Club is the first woman's club to be placed on the roll of the National Association of democratic Clubs.

Good Reading for Sore Democrats.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

MCKINNEY, Oct. 22.—Although I have demonstrated it but little, I have all my life felt quite an interest in county, State and National politics. I obtained my majority just after the close of the great bloody conflict between the States and when for the first time I was about to exercise the greatest prerogative of an American citizen I approached the ballot box with no little consideration. Having been a Union soldier, I had naturally imbibed an insipiation favorable to the North, or rather to the party then in power, so to disregard this early intuition and to ally myself with an opposite party was, I assure you, only after careful and due deliberation. Suffice it to say that I did after much anxiety and a careful consideration of the then bad state of affairs in 1868 cast my first vote for the democratic nominee for President of the United States, and while I have never taken an active part in even local politics, I have found much pleasure along with the rank and file of the democratic party in the exercise of suffrage.

I believe that every man should have earnest, honest political convictions. The affairs of administration demand it, both county, State and National. I am a democrat because I believe the democratic party represents principles that are for the best interests of the American people; then as a democrat I ask what is my duty when I go the polls to say by my vote which party I shall support? Shall I stop to ask just exactly who are the nominees of my party? Are they all men that I admire personally? Have I ever had a little difference with any of them in a business transaction? Have any of them ever voted in some local issue that I imagined was antagonistic to my business interests, or shall I from any imaginary cause of a personal nature refuse to cheerfully support all or any part of the regular nominees of the party whose principles I advocate and wish to perpetuate?

Some democrats try to get around this by saying "Oh, well there is no politics in county races any way." I want to ask how many republicans were ever heard to talk that way? Republicans as a rule are true to their party leaders, and this I admire above all things in any party. I would not belong to or claim to belong to any party whose nominees I would not cheerfully support under any reasonable circumstances. We must keep in tact county organization as well as State and National, if we hope to have any party at all. This is too patent to admit of argument.

The democratic nominees in Lincoln county at present are objectionable to no democrat so far as I have heard except for imaginary grievances arising from a personal or business standpoint, and as such grievances are no grievances at all from a democratic standpoint. I am glad to say that in this part of the county at least they are rapidly disappearing. I heard a prominent republican say yesterday that the democrats of Lincoln county had never presented a cleaner and more capable set of nominees than at present and that they would be hard to beat.

The republicans of Lincoln county well know that they have no earthly show to elect a single man, except by making inroads on the democratic party, and as the democrats are not so easily "gulled" as some of the republicans imagine, they will wake up on the morning of the 7th of November and wonder "where are we at?" DEMOCRAT.

An exchange says that a woman's character has been likened to a postage stamp—one black mark ruins it. Man's like a treasury note—no matter how many stains it passes at par. When a woman falls from grace her character is usually ruined forever, while on the other hand a man may straighten up and be received into the best of society again. Why is it thus?

In the present rage of women for "manish" clothes it would be well to remember the admonition of the sacred book, which may be found in the fifth verse of the 23d chapter of Deuteronomy, as follows: "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all that do are an abomination unto thy Lord thy God."—Capital.

A Quarter Century Test.
For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

It May Do As Much for You
Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottles. At A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie M. B. of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

We take pleasure in introducing to the voters of Lincoln county, Mr. James F. Cummins, republican nominee for county clerk. As the picture, which appears herewith, and which was procured at enormous expense, indicates, Mr. Cummins is very handsome and somewhat of a dandy, though far from being a lach-dah young man. He is strictly business, suave and polite, and is withal so clever that we would not say anything against him, if we had anything against him to say. The fact is Mr. Cummins is too nice a man for the company he keeps and like poor dog Tray, he is going to get hurt for it. Of course he stands no chance to be county clerk, even if he were running against a less popular and competent man than Thompson Cooper, but he will show in his bout around the county that a man can be a republican and a gentleman at the same time.

Of the republican candidate for sheriff, John H. Harman, we shall have little to say, except that so far as we can learn he is a pretty clever fellow. Not to know the gentleman may be to argue ourselves unknown, but we have to plead guilty to that impeachment. He is said to be a typical sheriff in physical proportions, but if he has peculiar fitness for the office, it will never be recognized in this good old democratic county. Tom Newland is as sure to be elected as the day arrives. He never has been beaten and it was not intended from the beginning that Harman should do it. His locality was all that ever suggested his nomination to the boss, who wanted to have each part of the county and interest represented in his patch-work ticket.

—McCreary, Montgomery and Berry are the only members of the Kentucky delegation of 10 democrats in the present House to be returned to the next. Stone, Caruth and Breckinridge were defeated in the primaries; Ellis, Goodnight and Paynter did not offer, and Lisle died in the harness. Silas Adams, the silent and solitary republican, is a faction's nominee for re-election, and will probably be succeeded in the 54th Congress by George E. Stone, a democrat. It will be the worst shaking up a Kentucky delegation ever received. —Lou. Times.

—The wife murderer Dooley, who was hung at Fort Madison, Ia., Friday, was a cool kind of a cuss. When asked if he had anything to say, he answered the sheriff, "Yes, you have violated the law. The law allows but 17 persons to witness an execution, and there are 25 present now and more coming. If a poor man violates the law he suffers the penalty; a rich man can do the same and he goes free. I hope God will forgive your sins."

—A daring hold-up of a Texas and Pacific passenger train took place near Gordon, Tex. Four unmasked men stopped the train and sent a section foreman into the express car to open a safe known to contain $30,000 in cash. Failing to get at this, the bandits secured the contents of the messenger's way safe, containing between $500 and $5,000, and then walked away into the mountains, whistling.

—A crank who had written several threatening letters to the bank officials called at the Clinton Bank in New York and demanded $1,000 of the paying teller. As the teller turned away, the crank shot at him, barely missing his head. The crank was overpowered and placed in custody.

—There was a decrease in the manufactured product of the Pullman Palace Car Co. for the year, but it was able to declare the usual dividend from the earnings of cars in operation. The daily average of wages has been increased from $2.03 last April to $2.16 in September.

—The Roanoke Rapid Power Company, composed of Northern and Southern capitalists, with a paid-up capital $2,000,000, has purchased 3,000 acres of cotton-growing land at Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and has commenced the erection of a 24 set knitting factory and a 20,000 spindle cotton mill, which will give employment to 11,000 persons.

—Riley Grannan, the greatest plunger of the year, has presented to his poor and aged parents the old homestead which they were compelled to give up years ago. The place is in Paris and Mr. Grannan paid $8,100 for it.

—Owing to some trouble about Hill's name being placed on the independent ticket Nathan Straus withdrew and Hugh J. Grant was nominated by Tammany for mayor of New York. He has accepted the nomination.

—Under the new law William Waldor, Astor will pay the most income tax $178,000 and John D. Rockefeller comes next with $152,225. Mrs. Hattie Green will pay $40,000 and Mrs. Eliot F. Shepard $20,000.

Every mother should know that cramp can be prevented. The first symptoms of true cramp is nervousness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—R. S. Nichols has sold his handsome residence on Harrodsburg Avenue to J. T. Lapsley, of this city, for $7,900. Dr. Lapsley sold the house he now lives in, on the corner of Harrodsburg and Walnut streets, the vacant lot between that and the residence of W. P. Price, and the cottage just back of his residence going toward the depot, to Samuel Harding for $5,200 for the three pieces of property. —Danville Advocate.

—Last Monday, Thomas R. Phelps resigned as master commissioner, and Judge John W. Hughes was appointed in his place. The office pays about $1,200 per year. Mr. Phelps made an excellent officer, and Judge Hughes will fill the place with equal credit. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Col. John K. Faulkner, ex-collector of customs of Louisville, now located at Richmond, while attempting to re-board the Southern train from Louisville at Lawrenceburg, lost his footing and fell to the side of the track, sustaining very painful but not serious injuries.

—There's nothing much in a name. The colored republicans in the 11th congressional district will vote for White with as much gusto as the white democrats would have voted for Black had he not found a Stone in his congressional path. —Owensboro Messenger.

—The fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, was the last under the McKinley act, designed to dissipate the surplus and check imports. The deficit for that year is definitely stated at $99,803,260. Do you want any more McKinley bill? If not vote for McCreary.

—The Bank of Monticello is the name of the institution just organized in Wayne county. Judge Joe Bertram is president and W. L. Baker cashier. It will begin business Jan. 1st with a capital of $20,000.

—The Somerset Reporter says that some scoundrels cut the ham strings of 10 steers belonging to Albert Hollers, of Wayne county. Several died and the others will likely do so.

—DeLong, Howard & Co., who are building the Danville water works have been awarded the contract to build a similar plant at Grenada, Miss.

—Harrodsburg won the foot ball game Friday from the Centre College second team, by a score of 8 to 4.

—Four deaths have occurred in Ripleyville, Anderson county, from whooping cough in the last ten days.

—The Somerset Reporter says that a little child of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gillispie died last week.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—G. W. Wilcher, 22, and Miss Mary E. Leefer, just 16, were married near Ottenheim Saturday.

—Some people are entirely too sensitive. A German, who had buried his fourth wife, went and killed himself when he asked the fifth woman to have him, and she told him he was too old to marry.

—Wm. Hilton, of Bullitt, and Miss Nannie Chiles, of Louisville, were married at the bedside of the dying mother in Mercer, at her request as she was anxious to see the ceremony. The nuptials occurred at noon Friday and the death at 5 the same afternoon.

—Invitations to the marriage of Miss Mattie Thompson, daughter of ex-Congressman Phil B. Thompson, Jr., to Mr. W. L. Davis, are being sent out. The event will occur at Secretary Carlisle's in Washington, Oct. 31. Miss Thompson has just returned from Europe.

—The Virginia Jockey Club has just inaugurated a six weeks' race meeting at the new St. Asaph track, about five miles from Washington, on the Virginia side of the Potomac. Nearly all the big stables are represented. The club has spent $75,000 on the track and buildings and the grand stand, one of the hand-somest in the country, will seat 2,800 people. There are 572 stables on the grounds.

—The wonderful yield of 13 pumpkins, aggregating 378 pounds in weight, were gathered by Mr. Frank Grow a few days ago from one vine on his farm in the Jessamine neighborhood. The plant was not cultivated, but grew in the edge of an old straw rick, the vine spreading over the rick. —Jessamine Journal.

—During the first five months of 1894 the United States shipped to Great Britain 166,000 live cattle and 750,000 cwt. of dressed beef, a large increase over the same period of 1893. The value was $22,500,000. The sheep exportation for the same time was valued at $600,000.

—Lawrence Tandy, of Louisville, a cigarette dude who is attending the Kentucky University, attempted to kill himself because he didn't have the money to buy the poisonous little things with, but unfortunately he did not succeed.

—Lookout Inn, on Lookout Mountain, at Chattanooga, is to go into the hands of a receiver. It will not be closed as a consequence, however, but will run through the entire winter.

—Five negroes are reported to have been lynched for the foul murder and robbery of Robert Copes, treasurer of Orangeburg county, South Carolina.
